

UNIVERSITY
PRESS · BOOKS
AND JOURNALS
BOX 90660
DURHAM, NC
27708-0660
DUKEUPRESS.EDU

For immediate release

February 27, 2009

For more information, contact
Jessica Lucas, Duke University Press, Web and Publicity Coordinator
jessica.lucas@dukeupress.edu

Complete back content for History of Political Economy now available online and free to current subscribers

Duke University Press is pleased to announce that more than forty years of content for History of Political Economy is now available online for the first time at hope.dukejournals.org. Individuals and institutions with current electronic subscriptions can access more than 200 issues—from the first issue of the journal, published in 1969, to the most recent issue—as part of their paid subscription. Subscribers who have already activated their online access can immediately view the newly posted back content; subscribers who have not yet activated their online access can find instructions on how to do so at dukejournals.org/subscriptions.

At hope.dukejournals.org, annual supplements to the journal, such as “New Perspectives on Keynes,” “The Future of the History of Economics,” “The Role of Government in the History of Economic Thought,” and “Economists’ Lives: Biography and Autobiography in the History of Economics,” are available. Readers may also sign up for RSS feeds and electronic tables of contents.

About History of Political Economy

Focusing on the history of economic thought and analysis, History of Political Economy has made significant contributions to the field and remains its foremost means of communication. In addition to book reviews, each issue contains original research on the development of economic thought, the historical background behind major figures in the history of economics, the interpretation of economic theories, and the methodologies available to historians of economic theory. All subscribers to History of Political Economy receive a hardbound annual supplement.

For more information regarding History of Political Economy, please visit hope.dukejournals.org. If you have a question about your subscription, please e-mail subscriptions@dukeupress.edu.

###