Duke Mathematical Journal: Volumes 1–100 Collection 2007 Pricing Information Sheet

The Duke Mathematical Journal: Volumes 1–100 (DMJ 100) is a fully searchable electronic collection of the first 100 volumes of one of the world's leading mathematics journals. DMJ 100 is available online through Project Euclid and offers electronic access to 4,830 articles published from 1935 to 1999.

Of the more than 600 mathematics journals published worldwide, only 170 reach the level of impact required to be included in the rankings of the Institute for Scientific Information (ISI). Among these, DMJ is ranked at 12, with an impact factor of 1.118 and a cited half-life of >10, the highest score given in this category.

FEATURES ON PROJECT EUCLID INCLUDE

- Page-level TIFF images at 600 DPI

- Mathematics Subject Classifications for each article back to 1978
- Reference lists for each article, with links from each reference to MathSciNet
- COUNTER-compliant usage statistics available on the Project Euclid Web site

ACCESS

- Free access to article pages containing bibliographic information, links to MathSciNet, and reference listings
- Full-text searches across the entire collection

PRICING MODELS

1. Subscription

The DMJ 100 collection is available by subscription. Currently the price is $250 for one calendar year of access (January to December).

2. Outright Purchase Without Maintenance

A customer may purchase DMJ 100 outright. Currently the price is $4,000. If customers choose this option, we will provide them with content on a DVD or CD, and they are responsible for hosting the content locally. (Please note that, with this option, libraries will not benefit from any upgrades undertaken after the purchase date.)

3. Outright Purchase With Maintenance

A customer may purchase DMJ 100 outright for $4,000 and pay an additional access/maintenance fee of $1,000 for twenty years of service (this fee, equivalent to $50 per year for twenty years, must be paid up front). In this case, Duke University Press will provide electronic access (currently via Project Euclid) for twenty years from the year of purchase. With this option, libraries will have continuous access to the latest version of the back files, which we expect to upgrade over time.

Libraries may not receive a refund of the access/maintenance fee if they decide at any point within the access period to host the content themselves.
