2009 Subscription Terms

Commission

Individual Title Orders

A 2.5% commission will be allowed to agencies on institutional subscriptions. To calculate the discount, subtract 2.5% from the U.S. institutional rate, then add the necessary postage and GST.

e-Duke Journals Scholarly Collection and Euclid Prime

Agents and consortia will receive a 5% discount on renewal orders. For new orders, agents and consortia are eligible for a one-time 10% discount. (New orders are defined as customers who have not previously purchased the e-Duke Journals Scholarly Collection or Euclid Prime, not customers who are new to a particular agent or consortium.)

Cancellation Policy

No refund will be made once the first issue of a journal subscription has been served. Back-issue orders cannot be canceled or returned once issues have been shipped.

Change of Address

Please notify us of address changes, supplying both the old address and the new one. Duke University Press cannot forward issues returned by the post office without written notice of the new address from the subscriber or the agent.

Print Claims/Shipping Time/Airmail

Claims for missing issues are honored for one year following the date of shipment. Only issues that have been lost or damaged in transit will be replaced free of charge. Domestic subscribers should allow six weeks for delivery of issues. Subscribers outside the U.S. should allow ninety days for delivery of issues. Airmail and express-delivery rates are available upon request.

Format Changes to Subscriptions

Duke University Press has experienced a considerable number of format change requests to original agency orders. Duke University Press has created a standard policy for format changes:

Downgrades: (A downgraded subscription is defined as a print-plus-electronic subscription that is changed to a print-only or electronic-only subscription.) Downgraded orders will no longer be accepted once the first issue of a journal subscription has been served.

Upgrades: (An upgraded subscription is defined as a print-only or electronic-only subscription that is changed to a print-plus-electronic subscription.) Upgrade requests will be accepted. Please allow six weeks for processing from the time that payment is received by Duke University Press. Upgraded accounts will not receive online access until payment has been processed.

Electronic Access

Most Duke University Press journals are accessed electronically via HighWire Press. The Duke Mathematical Journal, DMJ 100, the Notre Dame Journal of Formal Logic, and Euclid Prime are accessed via Project Euclid. The e-Duke Books Scholarly Collection is accessed via ebrary. For more information, please visit www.dukeupress.edu/library.

General Subscription Terms

Subscriptions from agents are accepted on a volume- and calendar-year basis only. Format (print-only, electronic-only, print + electronic) must be indicated on the order.

Payment Terms

All orders are to be prepaid, including postage charges.

Payments for electronic collections must be confirmed through Duke University Press before payment is submitted. Incorrect payments will be returned.

All payments must be remitted in U.S. dollars and by draft payable on a U.S. bank. Orders may be charged to MasterCard, VISA, or American Express. All other forms of payment will be returned unless special permission has been granted. Our federal ID number is 56-0532129.

All payments for Canadian subscribers must include 5% GST, which must be collected from the customer (GST R131868853).

No returns will be accepted.

Postage for Back Volumes/Single Issues

If shipped within the U.S.: $4 for the first issue; $1 for each subsequent issue.

If shipped to Canada: $4 for the first issue; $3 for each subsequent issue.

If shipped outside the U.S. and Canada: $6 for the first issue; $4 for each subsequent issue.

When figuring rates for back volumes, please include postage for each issue.

Renewal Invoices and Notices

Renewal orders are processed more promptly if they include our customer account numbers.

Renewal notices are not sent to institutions subscribing through agencies. If you want your agency to be notified of upcoming expirations, please request a renewal list of your customers.

Subscriptions at Individual Rates

It is our policy to accept subscriptions at individual rates only when they are paid by personal check or credit card. We assume that all domestic subscriptions paid through institutional funds—including those paid through subscription agencies—should be billed at the institutional rate. We continue to accept agency payments on behalf of individual subscribers outside the U.S. so long as full end-user address information is provided for verification purposes.

Site License Agreement

Site license agreements are required for the e-Duke Books Scholarly Collection, the e-Duke Journals Scholarly Collection, the Duke Mathematical Journal, DMJ 100, and Euclid Prime. Please visit www.dukeupress.edu/library for more information.

Wire Transfers

Subscribers outside the U.S. may submit payment via wire transfer. Please complete the following steps. (Duke University Press is not responsible for delays caused by wire transfers sent without the information listed below. Customers are responsible for any bank fees associated with the wire transfer. If the amount remitted does not cover these fees, issues will not be served until full payment is received.)

1. Please send transfers to

Bank	Wachovia Bank N.A. / Charlotte, NC USA
ABA#	053000219 (domestic wires only)
Swift Code	PNBPUS33 (foreign wires only)
Beneficiary Account	Duke University Concentration Account #2023740253053

2. Please include the following information:
Duke University Press Journals Customer Service
Accounting/Finance

New federal regulations require that bank wires contain the beneficiary's address. Please use this address:
Duke University / 705 Broad Street / Durham, NC 27708

3. Once the wire transfer is complete, please send an acknowledgment e-mail to subscriptions@dukeupress.edu (failure to do so will generally result in delay of the order, since the funds are deposited into a general account). In your acknowledgment e-mail, please include the following information:

- Total amount of transfer
- Duke University Press account number and full shipping address
- Description of items purchased with incoming funds
