New collections in 2020

African American, African, and Black Diaspora Studies 350+ titles

This collection includes important, interdisciplinary books about the Black experience around the world.

Anthropology 550+ titles

Duke University Press has helped define and redefine cultural anthropology for over thirty years, publishing major ethnographies by important authors.

Features

• Unlimited simultaneous users
• Unrestricted digital rights management (drm)—users can print, read online, or download PDFs by chapter
• Perpetual access
• No ongoing maintenance fees
• Free MARC records prepared by Duke University librarians

All collections hosted at read.dukeupress.edu

Purchase Information

Purchase includes perpetual access to all included e-books. In subsequent years, purchasing libraries will have the option to “top up” their subject collection by buying the year’s new batch of relevant titles.

For title lists and pricing, visit dukeupress.edu/libraries.
Gender Studies 600+ titles

This collection includes groundbreaking titles in gender studies, gay and lesbian studies, transgender studies, transnational women’s studies, and queer and feminist theory.

“Everyone should read this book.” — bell hooks

Latin American Studies 600+ titles

Duke University Press has been a pioneer in the foundations of Latin American Studies, publishing important work by key authors.

Asian Studies 300+ titles

This collection offers cutting-edge scholarship from a variety of disciplines about both contemporary and historical topics in Asian studies.

Art and Art History 150+ titles

This collection spans the discipline, with books in art theory and criticism, performance art, architecture, visual culture, photography, and museum studies.

Music and Sound Studies 100+ titles

Titles address not just music and ethnomusicology as they are traditionally studied but also the social, cultural, and technological dimensions of sound more broadly defined.

Religious Studies 100+ titles

This collection includes titles that examine religions around the world, conflicts within and among religions, and the cultural, social, and political dynamics of religion.