All About Your Eyes:
A Practical Guide in Plain English from the Physicians at Duke University Eye Center
Duke University Press, February 2006
Publicity Contact: Laura Sell, 919-687-3639, lsell@dukeupress.edu

About the Editors of All about Your Eyes

Sharon Fekrat, M.D., FACS, is a practicing vitreoretinal surgeon and an associate professor in the Department of Ophthalmology at Duke University. She is president of the North Carolina Society of Eye Physicians and Surgeons. Her current research interests lie in novel therapeutic options for vein occlusion and macular degeneration. She is the principal investigator for many ongoing clinical trials for retinal vein occlusion and age-related macular degeneration. Fekrat received her medical degree from the University of Chicago’s Pritzker School of Medicine. She has published widely in medical journals, is the co-author of Ophthalmic Ultrasound: A Diagnostic Atlas, and edited the chapter “The Eye” in The Johns Hopkins Family Health Guide. She has received numerous professional awards and was named one of the Best Doctors in America in 2003.

Jennifer S. Weizer, M.D. is a clinical assistant professor in the Kellogg Eye Center at the University of Michigan. She earned her medical degree at Baylor College of Medicine and recently completed her Residency in Ophthalmology at the Duke University Eye Center. Her specialties include medical and surgical treatment of glaucoma and cataract surgery. Her research has appeared in several prestigious medical journals.